

think popped!
never fried. never baked.

don't just take our word for it. ask our favorite snackers.

popchips rock my world... A fellow classmate recently introduced me to your chips. While at Target, I picked up the last 3 bags on the shelf...the salt & pepper is AMAZING... If I had a potato farm – I would donate all my potatoes to popchips! DM, California

I am going to MARRY your salt & pepper popchips... I didn't think you could improve on the regular ol' popchips—but these are freaking DIVINE! SF, Washington

No one loves popchips more than I do and if anyone challenges that statement, well I'll... I'll think of something!" MS, Texas

I'd never heard of popchips until I stumbled across them ... and was hooked! Oh, they're so good! I just love the original, parmesan and garlic, and barbeque potato chips; they're so much better than any other chip I've tried...Thanks, and keep up the good work! NL, Illinois

Okay, I finally broke down and bought some of your DELISH chips on amazon.com... Boy oh boy am I glad I ordered those chips! Whoa there – yummy and healthy? Why, I think I'm in love! These chips are everything they claim to be & more!..Those little guys pack some serious flavor & crunch! MD, Alabama

I wanted to let you know that I love, love, love your barbeque popchips! Oh my gosh! I am addicted. These barbeque popchips have completely ruined any other kind of chips for me...I will never eat a chip and enjoy it in the same way!...Thanks again for a terrific creation! CD, California

I just tried "popchips" and I was skeptical at best. Man, was I wrong, they are delicious! Yum! TR, Arizona

I must confess (confession is good for the soul) I bought 2 bags. I'm sitting here eating them as I'm writing. You must know these things are addicting, and what I really like about them is that they are so much more healthy and better tasting than any chips on the market! By far! I will tell others about them, but I am going to hide my other bag and the remainder of this bag, in my room. I don't want to share them with my husband or stepson. That's terrible, isn't it?!? Oh well. TS, Washington

I just LOVE your chips. I have ordered two cases so far from amazon.com. I am a Weight Watcher member and this is the answer to my prayers – they taste better than anything else on the market. I just love potato chips and this is just the perfect solution – satisfies my craving AND is low in calories and fat. Thanks so much for coming up with these! I know this will be a staple in my house. PA, Kentucky
